

CSG National Conference COVID Safety Policy, Protocols and Compliance

CSG is committed to providing safe meeting environments and to ensuring the health and safety of all participants in its events. By registering for and attending the CSG National Conference in Santa Fe, New Mexico, attendees agree to comply with all health and safety protocols established by CSG to help prevent exposure to COVID-19 and ensure the safety of all event participants. These include, but are not limited to, wearing masks at all times in public areas, maintaining appropriate social distancing; and participating in other health screening procedures.

COVID Safety Protocols

The Council of State Governments is committed to providing safe meeting environments and to ensuring the health and safety of all participants in its events. By registering for and attending the CSG National Conference in Santa Fe, New Mexico, attendees agree to comply with the following health and safety protocols established by CSG to help prevent exposure to COVID-19 and ensure the safety of all event participants. Noncompliance with CSG's health and safety protocols may result in the cancellation of an attendee's registration and the denial of admission to all conference events.

PLEASE NOTE: These protocols may be revised from time to time to reflect changing pandemic-related circumstances and the latest guidance from appropriate public health officials and the CDC. Please return to this website periodically for any updates or changes to these protocols.

Before Leaving Home

- All registrants and their guests are encouraged to familiarize themselves with and comply with all COVID-19-related guidance provided by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention \(CDC\) and by the appropriate state, provincial and local public health authorities.
- All registrants and their guests are encouraged to familiarize themselves with and adhere to all relevant travel guidance and restrictions issued by the appropriate governing authorities in the areas to and from which they will be traveling in order to attend the CSG National Conference in Santa Fe.
- Registrants and guests who feel sick, who have tested positive for COVID-19 within 10 days of the CSG National Conference (even if still asymptomatic), or who have been in close contact with anyone who has COVID-19 within 14 days of the CSG National Conference should stay home. Registrants and guests who cancel their meeting registration for any of these reasons will receive a full refund of any registration fees paid.

On-site During the Event

- All registrants and guests are required to wear masks that cover their nose and mouth at all times while attending all CSG National Conference programs and social events.
- All registrants and guests are required to adhere to social distancing protocols by complying with all relevant signage and instructions, by complying with all seating and capacity restrictions, and by staying 6 feet away from others at all times.
- All registrants and guests are encouraged to take appropriate preventative actions to help stop the spread of COVID-19, such as:
 - Washing hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds or using an alcohol-based sanitizer with at least 60% alcohol.
 - Avoiding touching eyes, nose, and mouth.
 - Covering nose and mouth when coughing or sneezing.
- All registrants and guests are required to participate in temperature checks and other health screening procedures upon arrival at the on-site meeting registration area and before entering select event venues during the conference.

- All registrants and guests who experience symptoms associated with COVID-19 while attending the CSG National Conference are required to immediately discontinue their participation in the conference and are encouraged to immediately seek medical care. Registrants and guests who discontinue their participation in the conference after becoming ill on site will receive a full refund of any registration fees paid.

Post-event

- All registrants and guests who test positive for COVID-19 within 14 days after returning home from the CSG National Conference in Santa Fe are encouraged to notify the CSG staff by calling 859-244-8000. Upon receipt of any such notification, and while maintaining the confidentiality of any attendee who reports a positive post-meeting COVID-19 test result, CSG staff will notify all event attendees of their potential exposure to COVID-19 during the conference.