

CSG National Conference COVID-19 Health and Safety Protocols

By registering for the 2021 CSG National Conference in Santa Fe, New Mexico, you have agreed to comply with the following protocols to help prevent exposure to COVID-19 and ensure the safety of all event participants.

On-site During the Event

- All attendees are expected to follow CDC guidance as well as local and state public health requirements in effect during the conference and social events. Additionally, you are required to comply with relevant signage and instructions and all seating and capacity restrictions that are in place at conference venues.
- Based on current state requirements, wearing of masks that cover the mouth and nose is required in all public indoor spaces, irrespective of vaccination status. This will apply except when eating or drinking.
- Seating in all sessions will be arranged to achieve as much social distancing as possible.
- All meeting locations will take precautions in keeping the facility sanitized and cleaned daily. Sanitizing stations will be available in common areas.
- CSG will make efforts to reduce touch points during the annual meeting by implementing badge scanning, paperless sessions, as well as other measures.
- You are encouraged to take appropriate preventative actions to help stop the spread of COVID-19, such as:
  - ✓ Washing hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds or using an alcohol-based sanitizer with at least 60% alcohol.
  - ✓ Avoiding touching eyes, nose and mouth.
  - ✓ Covering nose and mouth when coughing or sneezing.
- Meeting credentials are required to enter all conference sessions and events.
- Self-administered rapid tests for COVID-19 are available from Heed Health throughout the conference.

If you feel unwell during the event:

If you feel sick or are exhibiting COVID-19 symptoms, please self-isolate and cease participation in the conference. Please notify CSG staff by calling (859) 397-6685. Heed Health medical staff will be available to assist in determining appropriate next steps. Attendees who discontinue their participation in the conference after becoming ill on site will receive a full refund of any registration fees paid.

Post-event

Attendees who test positive for COVID-19 within 14 days after returning home from the CSG National Conference in Santa Fe are asked to notify the CSG staff by calling (859) 244-8000. Upon receipt of any such notification, and while maintaining the confidentiality of any attendee who reports a positive post-meeting COVID-19 test result, CSG staff will notify all event attendees of their potential exposure to COVID-19 during the conference.
